

Roger M. Kenny

Roger M. Kenny is the Managing Partner of Boardroom Consultants, a leading consulting firm specializing in director selection, management succession, corporate governance, and executive search for CEOs, CFOs and board chairmen. Prior to acquiring the firm, Mr. Kenny was a Senior Vice President and Partner with SpencerStuart and earlier had served in financial and line management positions with the Port Authority of NY and NJ. He earned an MBA at New York University Graduate School of Business and a BBA from Manhattan College. Mr. Kenny was the 2001 recipient of the Gardner W. Heidrick Award from the Association of Executive Search Consultants and he is the co-author of E-Board Strategies: How to Survive and Win, which has been published in The Harvard Business Review, The Corporate Board, Directors & Boards and others.