Edward Kangas joined the Tenet Healthcare Corporation Board of Directors in April 2003. He was elected non-executive Chairman of the Board in July 2003.

Mr. Kangas is the former Chairman and CEO of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, the parent company of Deloitte Professional Practices Worldwide.

Mr. Kangas joined Touche Ross in 1967 and became a Partner in 1975. He spent 12 years in Touche's consulting business. He was elected as Managing Partner and Chief Executive of Touche Ross in 1985, and was one of the chief architects of the 1989 global combination of Deloitte Haskins & Sells and Touche Ross. From 1989 to 1994, he served as Managing Partner of Deloitte & Touche (USA). From 1989 to 2000, Mr. Kangas served as Chairman and Chief Executive of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, designing and completing the integration of the worldwide firm. Under his leadership, the firm grew from $4 billion in revenues in 1989 to $13 billion in 2000.

Since his retirement from Deloitte in 2000, Kangas has been Chairman of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, one of the nation's largest health-related organizations. In addition, he serves as a trustee of the Committee for Economic Development and is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma Directors' Table. Kangas is currently a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Kansas Endowment Association and a member of the University of Kansas Business School of Advisors. He has served as a member of the Board of Overseers of The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

He is a Certified Public Accountant in New York and Connecticut.
