

David A. Wilson
President and Chief Executive Officer

Since 1995 Dr. Wilson has been President and CEO of the Graduate Management Admission Council®, a not-for-profit education association that is dedicated to creating access to graduate management and professional education and that sponsors the GMAT® (Graduate Management Admission Test®). Formerly, Dr. Wilson was a tenured member of the faculty of the University of Texas at Austin and the managing partner of professional development for Ernst & Young,. Dr. Wilson is Bailli Délégué (President) of the Confrérie de la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs in the U.S.A. and a member of the Conseil Magistral (Paris). He is the founder of the Chaîne Foundation, a non-for-profit group that provides scholarship support for students in the culinary arts and hospitality management field. He also is a member of the International Councillors of the Center for Strategic and International Studies and the British-North American Committee.